THE THEATERS

The Keyes Sisters presented one of the best western dramas ever seen in Clarksburg at the Robinson Grand last night to a large audience. "The Girl of Eagle Ranch," a strong western play, full of human pathos and heart interest, and lots of good clean comedy in which Chet Keyes, as the lazy coon, gave a splendid performance. The company will repeat the same play this evening and "The Country Store," a new feature with Clarksburg theatergoers, will also have its initial presentation to the public. Many inquiries have been received by the management relative to this new feature, but one must see it to get an idea of what this new departure really is.

Coupons will be issued at the door.

with which each one will be asked to write their name and address plainly, the same being collected after the first act, put into a box and immediately after the performance the drawing will take place from the stage. Forty valuable and useful household necessities will be given away free to the persons who are lucky enough to draw them from the box.

A special matinee for the ladies and school children will be given Saturday afternoon when a bag of Keyes Sisters' kisses will be given to all the school children. Another souvenir photo matinee will be a feature for next Wednesday, May 7, including the pink tea which has become so popular since their engagement here.

Commencing Monday the Keyes Sisters will offer a play that Miss Beulah Poynter starred in and one in which she made a great success, "The Little Girl That He Forgot," a story of swamp life in the Ozark mountains of Missouri and Oklahoma. Special scenery and costumes will be one of the features with this production.

SALEM

SALEM, May 2.—The baseball season in Salem opened here Tuesday in a game between Morris-Harvey College team and Salem College at the East End grounds. The game was interesting and was witnessed by a large crowd. The score was 12 to 4 in favor of the Morris-Harvey boys. The Salem team needs practice and on the following day the college team crossed bats with the High school team. The college team won by a score of 12 to 5.

The new pastor of the Seventh Day Baptist church, the Rev. A. J. C. Bond, has arrived with his family. He came from Milton, Wisc., where he concluded a very successful pastorate. The Rev. Mr. Bond and wife are natives of West Virginia and both are graduates of Salem College. After his college course the Rev. Mr. Bond took a theological course at Alfred, N. Y. The installation service will be held at the Seventh Day Baptist church Saturday and all the local ministers will participate.

The Rev. E. J. Wooster was at West Union this week attending the funeral of Mrs. West.

The Methodist church and Sunday school will observe Mother's Day next Sunday. A program in harmony with the day will be given and all the mothers of the church and school will receive a special invitation.

A glass workers' convention was held at Washington this week and Raymond Cornell was the representative of the two glass plants here. The glass tariff was one of the live questions considered at the meeting.

Edgar Berger, a skilled clarinet player, has engaged for the season with Vanderveit Brothers' circus. He left for Indianapolis, Ind., a few days ago.

A. E. Ward has received his new Ford auto. It was purchased through Young brothers.

J. E. Campbell and Claude Heavener represented the college in a joint debate with Glenville normal on the question of woman suffrage. The boys got the decision of the judges on the affirmative. The return debate will be at Salem May 24.

The county is building two additional bridges across Salem Fork of Tenmile creek below Bristol. The work is nearing completion and filling in the approaches has begun.

Mr. T. Williams, who has been afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism went to Mt. Clemens, Mich., this week for several weeks' stay. His wife accompanied him.

The home talent play, "Valley Farm" under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Social Helpers of the Methodist Episcopal church was a decided success. The large crowd that attended were entertained and delighted.

The place was replete with quaint comedy, and specialties that brought hearty laughter. Those comprising the cast were E. Stanley Young, C. N. Jones, S. L. Fleming, H. H. Webster, Cecil Young, Misses Blanche Wilson, Edna Carney, Hattie Leonard, Ethel Davis, and Mrs. L. C. Washburn and Mrs. W. A. Meredith.

Mrs. Martha Hannagan has been transferred from the West Union telephone office to Salem. C. W. Perine is a Wheeling business visitor this week.

SHOTLIFTER JAILED

PARKERSBURG, May 2.—Edward Williams has been jailed to await a hearing on a charge of slipping four eggs from a basket into his pocket in O. M. Schultz's grocery. The eggs are valued at ten cents in the complaint.

COUNCIL TO MEET

All Sizes NOW $10 Only a Few Of a Kind

These Same Styles in Ladies' Suits are Selling Elsewhere for $25. This is an Unusual Opportunity to Save Money

We have done an enormous volume of business this Spring, owing to the public's appreciation of our great values. When a store does a big business it orders in large quantities. Consequently we find ourselves overstocked with Ladies' and Men's Suits which we are going to sell at big reductions.

It is the progressive policy of this store never to carry any stock over the season, and instead of shipping our surplus stock back to the factory, we are going to show our appreciation of the public's generous patronage by selling these Suits at cost price.

Ladies' Stylish Suits

Beautiful Hand Tailored Garments in latest Colors and Fabrics.
